

MR. and MRS. THOMAS G. MURPHY

Kimberly Holmes Becomes Bride in Wayland Rite

The marriage of Kimberly Lynn Holmes and Thomas Gerard Murphy was solemnized Saturday (July 18, 1987) at St. Joseph's Church in Wayland. A dinner reception for about 200 guests followed at the Ponce De Leon Restaurant in Hornell.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Holmes of Wayland RD 1. The bridegroom is the son of Mary Leach, also of Wayland RD 1. The Rev. Paul Schnacky performed a double-ring ceremony and celebrated a Nuptial Mass. Mina Schubmehl of Wayland was the vocalist and Paula Abraham of Wayland was the organist.

The church was decorated with pink pew bows and altar arrangements of pink gladioluses and white daisies.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a matte taffeta gown fashioned with short sleeves, a fitted bodice adorned with Venice lace and seed pearls, and a sweetheart neckline. A flounce circled the chapel train. Her waist-length veil with a pouf was secured to a headband trimmed with pearls and lace. She carried three pink silk roses accented with babies'-breath and a white lace bow with streamers.

Patty Sauerbier of Springwater was the maid of honor. The bridesmaids were Wendy Gould, Denise Drum, Mary Perkowski and Wendy Griswold, all of Wayland, Suzanne Collins of Springwater and Ann Jay of Norwood.

John Murphy was the best man for his brother. The ushers were John Kurtz, Tim and Randy Holmes, Craig Nisbit and Andy Morsch, all of Wayland, and Mike Finch of Dansville.

Katie Jay of Norwood was the flower girl and Nicholas Hogle of Swanton, Vt., was the ringbearer.

The bridal attendants, attired in tea-length gowns of pink lace over satin, each carried a pink silk rose. The flower girl wore a pink dress with wreath of pink and white roses and matching ribbon. She carried a basket filled with silk roses and carnations.

The bride, a 1986 graduate of Wayland Central School, is a senior at Alfred State College majoring in medical laboratory technology. She is a part-time employee at the Wayland Food Mart.

The bridegroom graduated in 1976 from Wayland Central School and in 1978 from Alfred State College. He is a self-employed dairy farmer.

The Murphys reside in Wayland following a wedding trip to Virginia Beach, Va.

Former Wayland Pair Married in Canisteo

The marriage of Frances McDonald and Dale Gielen, both of Brooksville, Fla., was solemnized Saturday (Aug. 15, 1987) in Canisteo.

Canisteo Mayor Richard Kerr performed a double-ring ceremony for the former Wayland residents.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Virginia Amato of Dansville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Gielen of Canisteo.

Cynthia Fredericy of Wayland was the maid of honor and Donald Gielen of Canisteo was the best man for his brother.

The flower girl was Jessica Lynn McDonald of California, granddaughter of the bride.

The ceremony and a reception were at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

MR. and MRS. JACK R. HANNA

Couple Recite Wedding Vows in Wayland Church

The marriage of Nancy W. Cotter and Jack R. Hanna took place Saturday (Aug. 29, 1987) at St. Joseph's Church in Wayland.

The Rev. Paul Schnacky performed a double-ring ceremony and celebrated a Nuptial Mass. Paula Abraham was the organist and the vocalist.

The bride was given in marriage by her son, Michael Cotter of Wayland. She was attended by her daughter, Laurie Schroeder of Penn Yan, who served as matron of honor.

Michael Hanna of Wayland was the best man for his brother. The ushers were James Cotter of Wayland and Joseph Hanna of Sag Harbor, L.I., sons of the bride and bridegroom.

A lawn reception, with basket lunches, was at the late Russell Hanna schoolhouse.

The bride is a member of the faculty at Wayland Central School. The couple reside in Wayland.

Auxiliary Circle Has Special Event

The Peppermint Circle of the Noyes Memorial Hospital Auxiliary recently conducted a successful Penny Social in the Recreation Hall of the Presbyterian Church.

Gifts were donated by Auxiliary members and refreshments or coffee, punch and cookies were served by the Circle.

The Circle has thanked all who participated with a special salute to the following merchants who donated gifts: Ames Department Store, Betty and Bud Fierle, Photographic Emporium, Tops, Bells, Dansville Trailer Center, Village Remodeler, Radio Shack, The Potpourri, Pappas Flowers, Dansville Stationers, Lemen's Stationery, North Star Auto, Wilma's Flowers, Kate's Greenery, Williamson's Hardware, Thomas & Dwyer, Harold's, Dinzel Too, Reinholdt Clothing, Dansville Lumber, Dansville Chrysler-Plymouth, Ferguson's, Barrett and Laufer, and Bobbie's Place.

The group cited David Eno and his Boy Scout troop for setting up the tables and chairs and Rev. James Bender and the Presbyterian Church for use of the hall.
